Mihrabs (Niches) of the Prophet's Mosque

- The niche is the place where the Imam prays in the direction of the qiblah. There have been many niches in the Prophet's Mosque throughout history.
- After shifting the qiblah to the Sacred House in Makkah, the Prophet, (blessings and peace be upon him), changed the niche from the northern to the southern part of the mosque. Then, it was moved to the southernmost end of the expansion that took place during the era of Omar bin Al-Khattab. It was then changed as a result of the expansion during the era of Othman bin Affan. This is the place where the Imam stands today.
- Niches of the Prophet's Mosque Numerous niches have been built in the Prophet's Mosque throughout the ages. The most important of those niches are:
 - The Prophet's niche: It is located in the honorable Rawdah, to the left of the pulpit, where the Imam prays today.
 - The Ottoman niche: It is located in the southern wall of the Mosque where the Imam used to pray in the past.

Umrah in Ramadan

Performing Umrah in Ramadan

Umrah has great virtues at all times. It is one of the deeds that expiate sins, for the Prophet (blessings and peace be upon him) said. Additionally, it has a special virtue during Ramadan.

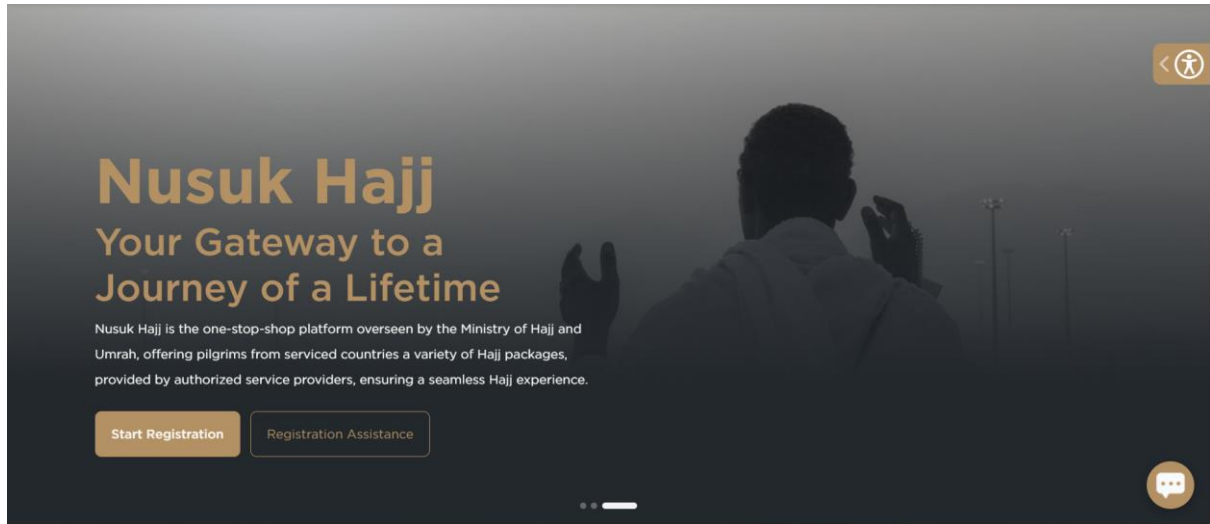

Reward for performing Umrah in Ramadan

- The Prophet blessings and peace be upon him said: "Performance of Umrah in Ramadan is equivalent to Hajj", or he said: "Equal to performance of Hajj with me"
- This virtue extends to all the days and nights of Ramadan
- The pilgrim must perform his Umrah at the time allotted to him as shown by the reservations in the official Umrah applications

When you drive for Umrah, park your car in a parking lot in Makkah.

The Five Pillars of Islam

Islam is submission to Allah and obedience to Him by doing His commands and abandoning His prohibitions. This is Islam. “Indeed, the religion in the sight of Allah is Islam.” [Al Imran: 19] Islam means: submission and humility to Allah by believing in His Oneness and being sincere to Him, obeying His commands and abandoning His prohibitions. This is Islam. This includes: performing the prayer, paying the zakat, fasting Ramadan, performing the Hajj, being dutiful to one's parents, maintaining family ties, and abandoning sins. All of these are included in Islam
